RISK CONTROL SERVICES

Backed by years of trustworthy experience, our in-house risk control team puts specialized skills and advanced technology to work for a broad range of industries, including construction. We partner with our insureds to learn about their business through a holistic risk-management approach based on open, candid conversations. This two-way discussion sets us apart — allowing us to apply expertise that runs deeper than checking boxes and running reports — to offer trusted recommendations.

Eligible policyholders have access to these exemplary consultative services and more:

- United Vendor Network to strengthen business resilience
- Risk assessments that include holistic review of operations
- Flexible, virtual assessments with tenured risk consultants
- Builders risk and construction defect hazards
- Thought-leadership solutions to emerging threats
- Identifying benefits of quality assurance and quality control processes
- Access to our digital resources
